Sanction of Advance Increment to Graduate Clerks

49. Sri B. P. KADAM (Karwar).—

Will the Minister for Education be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the benefit of higher starting pay or advance increments is given to graduates seeking employment in II Division and to non-graduates II Division Clerks graduating while holding the II Division post in the High Schools run by Government from 1-9-1964 under Government Order No. FD 10 SRP (2) 61, dated the 9th October 1964 ;

(b) if so, whether the same benefit is extended to clerks under the same category in the schools run by private agencies ?

Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI (Deputy Minister for Education).—

(a) Yes.

(b) No.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Is it not the policy of Government that the same treatment given to Government school teachers is extended also to teachers in private schools ?

† Sri N. M. KOTRABASAIAH SOGI.—Government is seriously considering the matter. We have called for some details. We are at it.

Purchase of Tea by Large-Scale Society, Gurgunta
